

TOP STORIES IN WSJ

1 of 12

 China Hacking
Deep, Diverse

2 of 12

 VA Scandal Is Shinseki's Latest
Battle

3 of 12

 U.S. Seeks $10
Billion Penalty
From BNP

 Factory-Job
Rebound Produces
Winners, Losers

Updated June 22, 2009 1:18 p.m. ET

Photos: Hong Kong Mogul Hotung Lists New York Apartment

Billionaire and philanthropist Eric Hotung is offering his home in the Osborne for $3.99 million. Also, a house owned by a European real-estate developer is on the market on the French Riviera with an asking price of $54 million.

 Email

BACK TO THE BEGINNING

EXPLORE MORE

Completed last year, the 9,300-square-foot house is in Cap D'Ail, a seaside town in southeastern France that borders Monaco. It has 10 bedrooms, 11 bathrooms, two terraces, gardens and two pools.